Part III – Primary Exempt Purpose

To promote the philosophy science and art of the chiropractic profession and to promote better public health.

Part III – Statement of Program and Service Accomplishments

a.) Provide representation for professional chiropractors:

To represent 4,000 members and promote the interests of chiropractic before the general public, the media, other health care providers, insurance companies, research organizations and government bodies through such means as news releases, educational materials, health advisories to the public, books, correspondence, testimony and appearances. Offer membership benefits such as group health, professional liability and life insurance. Support the chiropractic education process through scholarships and support of seven affiliated educational institutions.

b.) Publications

Approximately 10,000 copies of a membership benefit magazine (International Review of Chiropractic) and approximately 360,000 copies of a newspaper (The Chiropractic Choice) containing scientific and other articles to assist in the practice of chiropractic were distributed this year to members, leaders in the profession and the majority of chiropractors throughout the world received the newspaper.

c.) Conferences

Organize regular educational seminars on topics important for professional development and enhanced clinical services, and to provide continuing education credit as required by states for relicensure of doctors of chiropractic. Approximately 2,500 individuals attended ICA-sponsored conferences this year.
